Leadership Development and Membership

IABC Topeka covets a diverse membership of professionals working in various industries and roles in communication, marketing and public relations. Our chapter includes individuals working in the non-profit sector, self-employed consultants, and others who would benefit from assistance in paying membership dues.

This scholarship is valued at $152 (or ½ annual membership cost, plus ½ the annual application fee for new members if applicable which is $20) for a one-year membership in IABC and entitles the recipient to all benefits of membership at the international, district and chapter levels. In exchange for the scholarship, the recipient is expected to participate in at least one committee.
